I under	stand that my child's daily educational placement does not include a planned nap. In the event that my child is tired s asleep in class, they will be provided with a mat, made as comfortable as the classroom allows and continuously sed by the classroom staff. The nurse may also be called in to assess the wellness of my child. I understand that, if se determines that my child is not well enough to remain in school, I will be called to pick them up.
